This card comes to You through a simple, random act of kindness. It is given freely, and asks only that you accept the spirit of selfless giving that it represents, and pass it forward to others. In a perplexing world, Poetry has the power to inspire us, and the Divine creativity that we all seek comes from the Divine in each and every one of us.

Create Yours!

Please visit www.quotablekindness.com and share your story.